Invitation to Attend

The actKM Forum will hold its seventh annual conference on Wednesday 25 & Thursday 26 October 2006 at the Hyatt Hotel, Canberra. The actKM Forum is recognised internationally as a leading community of practice for public sector knowledge management, with the conference attracting practitioners, consultants, and senior managers from Australia and overseas.

The 2006 actKM Conference is dedicated to building better understanding of public sector knowledge management, by providing environments where members can share knowledge and experience of public sector knowledge management issues.

In conjunction with the conference, the actKM Research Forum will be held for the third year, and is for full and part-time research students of Knowledge Management and related areas, at any stage of their studies. The goals of the Research Forum are to promote these valuable research topics, and to provide students with an outlet for their research, and have experienced researchers and practitioners provide feedback on their paper and presentation.

Conference Theme

Conference Theme

The Conference Theme is 'Realising the Knowledge Management Vision', with a focus on balancing and integrating the cultural and technical elements of Knowledge Management theory and practice to achieve tangible improvements in organisational performance.

Conference Forums

The Conference will integrate three streams of KM research, theory and practice through:

- a KM Research Forum for doctoral candidates;
- a KM Theory Forum focusing on KM theory and principles;
- a KM Practice Forum focusing on the practical application of KM in public sector organisations.
