

2008 actKM Knowledge Management Awards

In 2008, actKM will once again judge and award prizes to organisations or individuals that have made significant achievements in organisational capability, performance or sustainability through the application of knowledge-based projects or activities.

actKM now calls for submissions for the 9th annual Knowledge Management Awards, to be announced at actKM 08 dinner on 14 October 2008 at University House, Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.

Cost: There is no cost to submit for the actKM Awards

Eligibility: All Australian-based public, private and not-for-profit organisations are invited to submit responses for consideration.

Categories: Awards are provided for cultural and technological initiatives

Criteria:

1. How well did the initiative achieve the objective (must relate/contribute to delivery of organisational outcomes in terms of core business)
2. How was the knowledge project implemented (strategies, methodology, innovation, and communications)
3. What is the organisational improvement realised (capability improvement, savings, service improvement, efficiencies, business growth)
4. What were the risk and challenges and how were they managed
5. What is the extent of stakeholder satisfaction (internal and external, customers, partners, etc.)

Closing Date: Monday 6th October 2008

Submission: The response should be against the criteria and submitted in word or PDF to conference2008@actkm.com. Supporting digital video attachments are also acceptable. Submissions need to be concise yet contain sufficient information for the judging panel to adequately assess the merits of the entry. They should include a 150 word summary.

All necessary clearances and permissions required for the release of all information submitted including any proprietary, confidential, technical or commercial information must be obtained by the applicant.

All submissions become the property of actKM and are not returned to applicants. There should be no restrictions on the use of the submitted information in any promotion of the awards program.

All expenses relating to the preparation of the submission and attendance at the award ceremonies are the responsibility of the applicant. Tickets for the awards dinner are available by completing the relevant section of the conference registration form at www.actkm.org.au for a price of $70.

Judging: A panel of between three and five judges will be selected from a broad range of industry groups and will, collectively, have a broad range of experience in knowledge management. Submissions will be assessed solely on the submission and in accordance with these Submission Guidelines. The judging panel will be independent of all submissions. Judges decisions shall be final and no correspondence shall be entered into.

Enquiries: Any additional information can be obtained from the Convenor at: conference2008@actkm.com
